

HIT SOLD SOUTH

Republicans Voting Strong in Democratic States.

Attack Is Concentrated in Tennessee Local Fight.

CLAIM G. O. P. INCREASE

Three Congressional Districts Prize in Alabama.

Only Four States Sure To Be Democratic.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 2.—Republicans delivered a heavy attack on the Democratic ranks in the "solid south" today as the voters went to the polls. Tennessee, where aged Alf Taylor, Republican, brother of the famous Democratic governor, is heading the G. O. P. drive, was the spot in the Democratic fire. Republicans were predicting Taylor's election by 15,000 over Gov. A. H. Roberts, who is running for re-election. Democratic leaders, however, claimed a 40,000 majority.

Three congressional seats were the goal in North Carolina, where Republicans said they were confident of being returned a winner in the Seventh, Ninth and Tenth districts.

G. O. P. Claims Increase. In two other states conceded to Democracy, the G. O. P. was claiming substantial gains—Alabama and Georgia. The prize in Alabama were the three congressional offices.

Five Republicans sought congressional offices in Georgia. They claimed incumbent congressmen. Republican headquarters here claimed strong chances of victory there. A curious feature of the Georgia campaign was the fact that the Republicans drafted the entire state Democratic ticket and stuck on their national leaders and congressmen.

Watch "Hybrid" Vote. Democratic leaders today issued warnings to their following to guard against this "hybrid ballot" means by which they asserted the Republicans hoped to confuse Democrats into voting for the national Republican ticket.

Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida and South Carolina were expected to go Democratic.

No politicians were attempting to estimate the women's vote in the south. In Georgia, indeed, there was disagreement as to whether the vote was entitled to win the election. The attorney general, however, has ruled they may vote.

PISTOL FIGHT ON STEAMER

New Orleans, Nov. 2.—Eleven Chinese members of the crew of the British steamship Elmleaf were wounded early today when guards resorted to pistol fire to quell a mutiny aboard the vessel.

UNITED STATES DEBT IS CUT. Reduction of More Than $24,000,000 for October Is Shown.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Treasury operations for October resulted in a further reduction in the public debt, according to figures made public today, showing the gross debt to be $24,062,509,872. This represents a reduction of $24,846,485 during the month.

POLLINGS

By the United Press.

Today was Chicago's "dryest" election day. Where booze flowed freely in past election days, today there wasn't even a smell. A two and a half year sentence in the penitentiary for a day took all the thrill out of it. Cops could have taken a day off.

Democratic claims that Governor Cox will win were moonshine, according to J. T. Adams, vice chairman of the Republican national committee.

Uncle Sam put a damper on enthusiasm of district political bosses in Chicago. Ballot box stuffing, repeated were barred today. "Nine States At Line" and other vote-getting dodges were barred today. Governor Cox was barred today. "Nine States At Line" and other vote-getting dodges were barred today.

Think whiskered "Ham" Lewis, farmer Democratic leader in the United States senate, won't limit his campaign to win the nomination in his own state. He didn't quit talking until midnight last night.

Neighbors Cox and Harding of Kokomo, Ind., aren't going to vote for themselves. William Cox will vote for Senator Harding and William Harding will vote for Governor Cox.

Women voters in New York required 30 minutes longer to cast their ballots than the men in the same district. The average time for each of 34 women voters was 35 minutes. Thirty-seven male voters required an average of 24 minutes.

A voting place of one minute was established in a polling place in a public school in New York. Most of the voters were women.

There was such a crush at the polls in New Haven, Conn. that at several places the lines were a third of a mile long. Fifty per cent of those in line were women. Take the lady to the polls. The slogan in Boston. Papa kept the infant pinned when he voted and vice versa.

Negro voters at Springfield and Dewey, chief negro precincts in Oklahoma county, were convinced to vote in haste because of the flooded North Canadian river.

WED ANOTHER MAN

Waited Seven Years for Her—She Married Another.

He Also Served Eighteen Months in Prison.

CASE REVEALED MONDAY

Mrs. Eula Herbold Asks Possession of Her Child.

Judge Whitcomb Continues Trial for More Evidence.

The story of a man who served eighteen months in prison "for her" and how he had waited seven years to see her wedded to another man, was revealed Monday afternoon in Judge George Whitcomb's division of the district court when the petition of Mrs. Eula Herbold for a writ of habeas corpus to obtain possession of her baby came up for hearing.

Case Is Continued. Attorneys for Mrs. Alice Anderson, 513 Locust street, who has possession of the baby, Clifford Herbold, attempted to show that the mother had been living with Jess Sutton, of Sapulpa, Okla., as his wife. Judge Whitcomb continued the case until further evidence could be obtained. Mrs. Herbold was allowed to take her baby to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Pratt, 228 Kline street, under $1,000 bond.

Just a few months ago Clyde Herbold, son of Alice Anderson, was arrested for stealing some tires. He skipped his bond and disappeared, leaving his pretty young wife and their 2-year-old son, it is said. Mrs. Herbold went to live with the Andersons. Later she went to Sapulpa, ostensibly to visit the Suttons. Jess Sutton, a son, lived a few blocks from them. Attorneys for Mrs. Anderson say Mrs. Herbold and Sutton admitted that they lived together as man and wife. Becoming suspicious, Harry Anderson, Alice Anderson's husband, wrote to Eula to bring the baby home. Eula declined. Attorneys for Mrs. Anderson then went to Sapulpa and brought the baby and his young mother to Topeka. Mrs. Herbold predicted that her husband and started a divorce suit against her missing husband and habeas corpus proceedings to get her baby. Monday, she was told that her husband had been living together, but declared she had been living with him. Eula declined.

Prison Record Unknown. Just what Sutton spent eighteen months in an Illinois jail for appears not to be known by attorneys for either side. But that she spent time in the penitentiary, Mrs. Herbold admitted on the witness stand. Mrs. Anderson is asking for her son's child on the ground that Mrs. Herbold is not a fit person to care for him.

Ed Rooney, attorney for Mrs. Anderson, introduced in evidence two letters written by her to her husband by Sutton and one by Mrs. Herbold at the time she was living in Sapulpa. It appears that Mrs. Anderson had been living with her husband at that time and Mrs. Herbold expressed anxiety for her safety at the time explaining why she did not bring her baby back to Topeka.

Writes Him a Letter. In her letter to Anderson she said in part, referring to Mrs. Anderson: "As far as trying to keep Clifford away from me, I don't think that is something I am not trying to do, but I don't think his father deserves credit for it. For things are as they are, and I don't think his father would get it if his father had it to do. I know that you both have been friends to me and I don't think I am going to let you do that to me. I figure this way, that the one who is paying my way and the baby's way, which is Jess, who just served eighteen months in the penitentiary for me because Clyde got me instead of him—do you think he has done time enough for me or not? If it was a case of yours would you let your woman leave you after you had such a time to get her as he has me? How would you feel about it?"

The letter written by Jess to Harry was inclosed. He began it "Dear Uncle Friend" and it read in part: "I don't think there is anyone on earth who thinks more of Eula and Clifford than I do and say, Harry, I am going to tell you just how I am for getting her and I just thought I ought to get together to be with her for a while anyway."

Pled For Chance. Jess said he had a month's parole to serve and plead for a chance to "get on his feet" and take care of Eula and the child. On the witness stand Mrs. Herbold said that Sutton faltered when she told him she was going back to Topeka at Mrs. Anderson's request. It was after that that she reduced to writing what it was.

Under cross examination Mrs. Anderson admitted that she is now living with her husband, but she stated that she had been divorced from her first husband, but that she had not been divorced from her second husband, but that she had been divorced from her third husband, but that she had been divorced from her fourth husband, but that she had been divorced from her fifth husband, but that she had
